

The Retirement from Bariatric Surgery of Dr Francois Schutte

It is with great sadness that SASSO is announcing Dr Francois Schutte's retirement from bariatric surgery. Due to personal circumstances, he will no longer be involved in this field of practice.

We would like to thank Dr Schutte for his unwavering loyalty and commitment to excellence in this field. He will remain a close friend to SASSO and we wish him great happiness in the future.

Thank you, Dr Schutte, for your many years of dedication.
